

Dallas Fair Park

DALLAS, TX

EverGreene was chosen in 2004 to recreate six lost murals originally designed by Pierre Bourdelle in 1936 at the Dallas Fair Park. Each mural was approximately 15w x 27h. Our Design Team conducted careful research to determine the original color and design of Bourdelle's painting technique before executing the murals in-situ using Keim mineral coating paint on the newly prepared wall surfaces.

MORE INFORMATION:

<https://evergreene.com/projects/dallas-fair-park/>

SERVICES PERFORMED

Murals
Recreation and Replication of Murals & Artwork
Research & Documentation

PROJECT DETAILS

Client

City of Dallas

Paint Vendor

Keim Mineral Coatings of America

