

St. Paul's Chapel and University Student Center

Madison, WI

St. Paul's Chapel serves the Catholic student population of the University of Wisconsin, Madison. The new chapel and Catholic Student Center replace brutalist architecture on the same site. The new St. Paul's was more than a decade in the making. When the architectural form was established by Matthew Alderman and RDG Planning & Design, EverGreene was invited to develop and implement a comprehensive liturgical artistry program.